Deadlines: To be successful in this class, you may want to complete all the projects on time. In-class assignments are due at the end of each class period. For each day a project is late 3% of the grade will be deducted.

Academic Integrity: All students are subject to the code of student conduct, including but not limited to, issues of Academic Honesty and Integrity.

Backup Storage: Students are responsible for keeping backups of all projects.

Attendance Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes and arrive on time with required materials. Good note taking is mandatory. Absences will result in a lower grade. Students will be allowed a maximum of three absences. Every absence above three will result in 5% being deducted from the student’s final grade. Excused absences may be taken into consideration if they are accompanied by a note from a doctor. It is also very important to arrive on time for class. Entering the classroom late is disruptive for the other students and instructor, and the student will be behind in the coursework for the day. Any student arriving more than 10 minutes late for class will be marked as absent.

Disability Accommodations: If you have a disability, you may be entitled to receive individualized accommodations intended to assure you an equal opportunity to participate in and benefit from the course. To request disability accommodations, please make an appointment to see the instructor. For more information and assistance, please call the Program for Academic Success (PAS), 701 Lawrence Hall, (412) 392-3870. The PAS Office will provide specific information on the Point Park College ADA Policy and application procedures to the student. PAS will also contact individual instructors to verify a student’s eligibility and to make arrangements for individualized accommodations.

Cultural Diversity: Point Park University recognizes its responsibility to create and maintain an environment that affirms the diversity of people and ideas. Point Park University embraces, supports and actively pursues a policy of inclusiveness that recognizes, values and reflects the diversity of the community we serve and the world in which we live.
